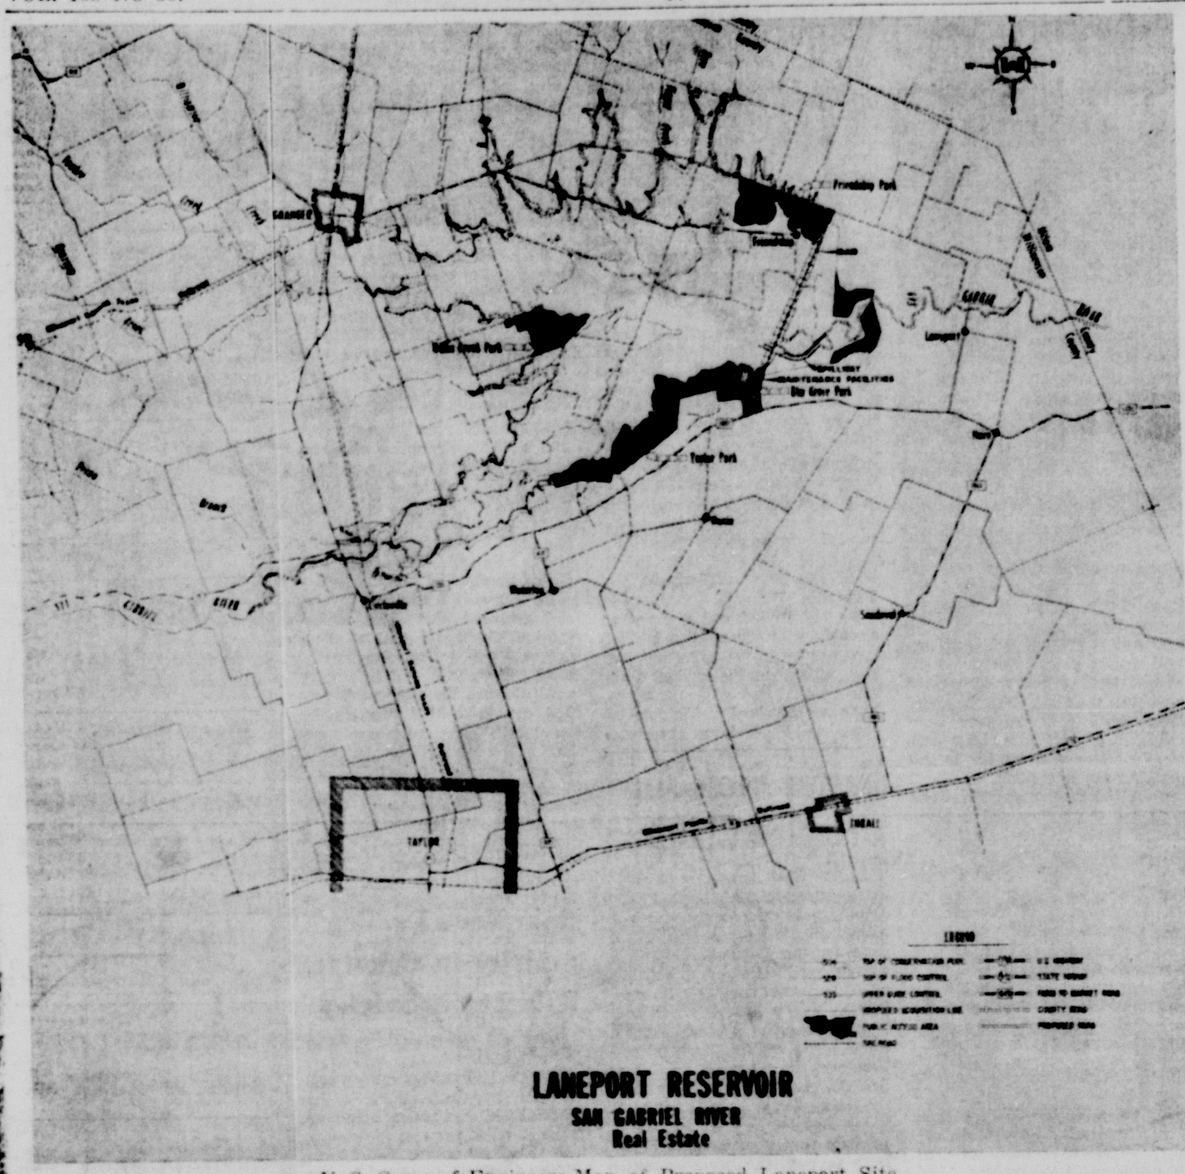
Hearing Scheduled For Dam Site Land



U. S. Corps of Engineers Map of Proposed Laneport Site

ENGINEERS TO EXPLAIN ACQUISITION

Special to The Herald

FORT WORTH

A public hearing will be held by the Fort Worth District, U. S. Army Corps of Engineers 9 a.m. Tuesday in the Community Building at Georgetown.

Col. Jack W. Fickessen, district engineer, will conduct the hearing in connection with acquiring land needed by the Army Engineers to construct Laneport and North Fork Reservoirs.

He will briefly describe the projects to be built on the San Gabriel River.

Landowners in the Williamson County site areas will be given an opportunity to ask questions and present statements.

Laneport Dam and Reservoir is presently planned to be located on the San Gabriel River, 31.9 river miles from the confluence of the San Gabriel and Little Rivers.

The main embankment or dam will be a rolled - filled - earth structure 12,467 feet long with a fill height of 99 feet. The reservoir has an area of 4,460 acres at the top of the conservation pool, elevation 504 feet. At flood-control pool, elevation of 523 feet, it will have an area of 11,040 acres.

Construction of Laneport Reservoir will require about 14,350 acres in fee title and perpetual flowage easements over 240 acres. Approximately 212 ownerships are involved.

Present plans of the Army Engineers call for construction of North Fork Reservoir on the San Gabriel River, 4.3 river miles from the confluence of the North and South Forks, near Georgetown.

The main part of the embankment will be a rockfilled structure with an impervious earth core. The total length of the dam, including the spillway, is approximately 5,950 feet with a maximum height of 165 feet above streambed, or to elevation 864 feet.

The uncontrolled spillway will be 750 feet long with a crest elevation of 834 feet. The dam will have an intake structure and outlet works for use in maintaining normal stream flow.

The reservoir has an area of 1,310 acres at the top of the conservation pool, elevation 791 feet. At flood-control pool, elevation 834 feet, it will have an area of 3,220 acres. Approximately 6,300 acres of land will be acquired. About 50 ownerships are involved, engineers report.

Under present policy, Army engineers will acquire land to the upper guide contour, which is five feet above the flood-control pool, whichever is the greater. Lands

One inch of rain fell each hour for 24 hours. A flood followed, inundating the Little River - San Gabriel basin.

The 24-inch rain in 24 hours at Taylor, actually a bit more than 23 inches, caused the 1921 flood, memory of which resides in the minds of many Milam residents. Other floods since have been numerous.

That is all such catastrophe should be in a few years with construction of Laneport and Gabriel Dams on the San Gabriel River.

A meeting concerning land acquisition is scheduled next week in Georgetown. Cong. W. R. Poage urges Milam County, which gains greatly by construction of the dams, to send a delegation to express our interest. His point is well taken.

He mentioned in a letter to this newspaper a few weeks ago, the prospects of irrigation in Milam County. The Laneport Dam would create this prospect. The Gabriel dams, the North Fork to be built first, would contribute to this control.

The obvious advantages of being the first town of size downstream should urge Cameron to send a delegation. And the possibilities even for other communities benefiting from prospective irrigation or water districts, derivation of industrial water, among other possibilities, might attract their interest.

We heard the Galanffys practice for a while Tuesday night with the Central Texas Symphony, working toward the opening of the 1968 season which brings the piano duo and orchestra to Cameron 8 p.m. March 14.

They are fine pianists. It is such artistry that puts the class in classic music. Anyone within sight of these words will enjoy the sound of their music in Cameron that Thursday night at National Guard Armory.

2-Pistol Farming . . .

Corinth Dates From 1830's

By Jan Luecke

Corinth, just north of Buckholts, is today considered a model of modern farming and ranching.

Where Joe Glaser now runs tractors, David Curry first plowed the land with a cap and ball pistol on each hip to protect himself from warring Cherokee Indians.

Curry and his father, Thomas Curry, a cooper or barrel maker, joined the Sterling C. Robertson exposition in Alabama and received a land grant from the Mexican government dated 1825. Their property ran from the San Andres (Little) River to Elm Creek and comprised 4,448 acres. In the 1830s the family was raising horses, longhorn cattle, had planted a peach orchard and were growing corn for their bread.

Salt was brought from Freeport, a trip that took several weeks. When the supply ran low, the family would dip up dirt in the smokehouse where meat had been salted, put it through water to dissolve the salt and let the water evaporate, leaving the reclaimed salt.

A fort was built at Bryant Station to protect the early settlers from Indian attacks and the Curry family found shelter there on several occasions.

Joe Daniels joined his Uncle David Curry at Corinth and prospered at raising stock and sheep. He lost 500 acres of land on a merchandising venture at Ad Hall in the 1850s. This was the first land to leave the family.

A store was opened in the community by Mike Rogers, Sr., of Corinth, Miss., around the Civil War period. Medicine was not available at that time and whiskey for medicinal purposes was said to be the major stock.

Mike Rogers, Jr. and Joe Daniel's daughter were married and gave the land for the first school and Methodist Church which were built about 1870. About this time the community adopted the name of the Rogers' hometown, Corinth.

J. D. Lewis, a descendant of the first family, said the school term lasted from 2 to 5 months depending on how much money they were able to raise for a teacher. A Mr. Pollack, a druggist from St. Louis, Mo., was the first teacher. Peak enrollment was 99 students in the 1930s. It is now a part of the Buckholts school.

William "Squire" Lewis of Alabama was one of the better known North Milam settlers. He married David Curry's daughter and settled at Corinth. He was active in county politics, was first Precinct 6 justice of peace and a charter member of the Masonic Lodge in Cameron. He also helped build the first courthouse in Cameron.

The only road from Cameron to Belton in the 1800s was just a few steps north of the J. D. Lewis home. Rockdale was the trading area until the railroad came to Cameron.

Records are few, but legend says that Buckholts was carved out of the Corinth community when Joe Daniels, involved in a lawsuit, paid his attorney, Judge John Buckholts of Bryan with a deed for 1,000 acres of land.

Weekend 'Save-in' Starts Thursday

Eleven businesses thus far have joined in the first weekend promotion, following a tradition of "dollar days" with the weekend specials.

Point - of - sale cards and window streamers will lead visitors to the "Save - in" feature items at the feature stores.

They are: Culpepper Furniture, J. C. Penney, Inc., Duke & Ayres, Ben Franklin, McIntosh's, Schiller Pharmacy, Schigut's, Lewis-Chili Shoe Store, Chamberlain Meat Co., Horstmann's Tire Store and Cameron Lumber Co.

Co-ordinators of the promotion are Jerome Friesenhahn and Porter Young, co-chairman of the Cameron Chamber trade development committee.

"We invite other merchants, throughout Cameron, to join in this monthly weekend promotion. We would like to make it truly community wide," said Friesenhahn.

Gary Maddox Killed In Houston Tavern

Gary Maddox was shot and killed in an affray in a Houston tavern Tuesday night.

Maddox, 18, was under a 3-year probated sentence for burglarizing and vandalism at Yoe High School in April, 1967. He had been working in Houston.

Sheriff Carl Black said the Houston sheriff's office reported that Maddox was shot late Tuesday at Little Lee's Lounge, 7415 Canal St., Houston. Funeral arrangements are pending at Marek-Burns Funeral Home.

Maddox is survived by his grandmother, Mrs. Beene of 1407 N. Houston, Cameron, and his parents, Elton Maddox of Dallas and Mrs. Ruth Kristinek of Dallas.

Public Schools To Have Open House

Cameron schools will be open to visitors March 4 through 8 during Public Schools Week in Texas with special emphasis on Thursday when the science fair, open house and PTA meeting are scheduled.

Teachers will be in their rooms to meet parents from 6 to 7:30 p.m. Thursday in Ada Henderson, Ben Milam and Yoe High School.

Science Fair projects will also be on display that night in Yoe High School.

The Parent - Teacher Association will meet at 7:45 p.m. in the Ben Milam cafetorium. Supt. D. R. Dodson will speak on "The Total School Program."

Dodson said parents and others in the community who are interested in the schools, are also invited to visit classrooms each day during Public Schools Week. Visitors may eat in the school lunchrooms during the special observance if they make reservations the day before their visit.

He said he hoped the community would take this opportunity to meet teachers and administrators and see the new technical teaching aids now in use.

"Public Schools Week is an appropriate week for giving each pupil and each citizen who visits in the schools a better understanding of the vitally important responsibility which rests upon the public schools in a country governed by and for the people," Supt. Dodson said.

World Day of Prayer, observed each year on the first Friday in Lent, dates from 1887. Prayer and giving for the world-wide mission of the Church have been its primary purpose. The observance is world-wide in character with the same basic service used by groups in 126 countries and territories of the world. It helps support Christian colleges in Asia, Africa, and Latin America, aids students from abroad who come to the United States each year, and provides Christian literature in 18 different countries in addition to simply-written Bible stories for new literates.

Mrs. Charles Hensley, chairman of the World Day of Prayer arrangements, said a special effort had been made to invite area church members to the service.

Searching Your Car

If a policeman stops you for a traffic violation, may he search your car?

This question might seem minor. But it raises some major constitutional issues. According to the Fourth Amendment, you are protected against "unreasonable searches." And evidence obtained from such a search cannot be used against you in court.

But what is "unreasonable"?

Gradually, through a series of court rulings, several basic rules have become fairly well established.

For one thing, the search is not lawful if the motorist was stopped on a trumped-up charge, merely as an excuse for making the search.

In one case police suspected that a certain car contained illicit lottery tickets. To find out, they halted the car for "passing on a curve"—even though passing on that particular curve happened to be perfectly legal.

As it turned out, the police did indeed find lottery tickets in the car. Nevertheless, this evidence was held inadmissible in court, because there was no valid basis for the arrest in the first place.

Nor is the search lawful, even when there really was a traffic violation, if the search has no logical relation to the violation. Thus, police who stopped a motorist for making an improper U-turn were held not justified in searching the car for narcotics.

On the other hand, police who stopped a motorist for drunk driving were held justified in looking for whiskey. Their discovery of a bottle of gin, half empty, helped afterward to convict the motorist of driving while intoxicated.

Furthermore, the search is lawful if, after the car is stopped, police observe some telliale sign of criminal activity.

For example, while an officer was writing a ticket for speeding, a passenger in the car shifted his position—accidentally revealing a hidden pistol. The officer promptly made a search, discovering not only weapons but stolen merchandise as well. Under these circumstances, the search was held lawful nad the evidence admissible in court.

Of course, the safest procedure for the police is to get a warrant before making their search. But the law is less insistent on a warrant for searching a car than for

The reason is obvious: whisking a car out of the jurisdiction is easier than whisking a house.

Blinn Meet To Open Track Season Friday

Friday the Yoe track team will strike out for Blinn as they open their 1968 season. This meet is a fairly large one, drawing a good number of schools.

Since the Yoemen will be competing with some of these schools in later meets, this will be a good chance to gauge the opposition's strength.

The Blinn meet will also reveal the running strength of the Yoemen. We wish you the best of luck on Friday!

Soil Testing Pays Off In Increased Value Of Crops

COLLEGE STATION

In 1967, Stanley Bushong, a San Patricio County farmer, invested $2 in a soil test. By following test recommendations, he increased the value of his grain sorghum crop by $43 an acre above the cost of fertilizer.

C. D. Welch, Extension soil chemist at Texas A&M University, said the soil sample which was sent to the testing laboratory by Bushong represented 40 acres, making the test cost only 5 cents per acre. The recommendation from the lab called for the use of 60 pounds of nitrogen; 40 pounds of phosphorus and no potash per acre.

Welch said the increase in the per acre value of the grain sorghum crop wasn't an isolated example of the value of soil testing, good management and the use of the right combination of plant foods.

Harvey Owen in Matagorda County did even better. He submitted a composite sample from 40 acres and the test showed the field needed an application of 45 pounds of nitrogen and 30 pounds of phosphorus per acre for the most profitable grain sorghum yield. The value of grain produced was $50 an acre higher on the fertilized field than on similar land which received no fertilizer.

Welch said it is important that investments in fertilizers be made in those materials or mixtures that contain the plant foods needed in the soil to meet nutrient requirements of the crop being grown. This, he added, is the objective of the soil testing program.

The soil chemist pointed out that there is still time to get soil tests made before planting but wet fields are now a problem. Samples should be taken as soon as soils are dry enough for the taking of samples.

Local county agricultural agents can supply detailed information on all phases of the soil testing program and also cartons and information sheets which must accompany the samples when they are mailed to the laboratory.

IRS Questions

This column of questions and answers on Federal tax matters is provided by the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q — I want to deduct my medical insurance premiums but can't find the place to do this on the tax form. Where do they go?

A — Enter your medical insurance premiums on Page 2 of Form 1040. Use the first and fifth lines of Part IV, ItemizedD eductions. The premiums can't be deducted on Form 1040A. That form can only be used by taxpayers who don't itemize deductions.

Q — Is income from a scholarship taxable?

A — Scholarships and fellowship grants are tax free within certain limitations. For more details, send a post card to your District Director and ask for Document No. 5575, "Scholarships and Fellowships."

General tax information for students is contained in the new publication, "Tax Information for Students and Parents," Document No. 5972. Both are free.

Q — I'm in a car pool and drive over 40 miles to work and back. Can we take a 10 cents a mile deduction for business travel?

A — No. Tax law considers commuting to work a personal expense and therefore no deduction is allowed. A deduction is allowed, however, for state and local gas taxes if you itemize. This is explained on Page 9 of the 1040 instructions.

Q — I have a pension from my company as well as Social Security benefits. I know Social Security is not taxable but how about the company pension?

A — If the company paid the entire cost of the pension, the amounts you received will be fully taxable. If you paid part of the cost, only a portion of your pension benefits will be taxed.

If you will recover the total amount of your contributions within three years after you receive the first payment, your pension will not be taxed until you have recovered your cost. If you will not recover the amount of your contributions within the three years a portion of the pension will be taxable each year.

Additional information on this subject may be found in IRS Document No. 5018, "Retirement Income and Credit." This document can be obtained by dropping a post card to your local IRS office.

Q — I paid off my home mortgage early and was charged a pre-payment penalty. Is that deductible?

A — Yes, it is deductible as interest if you itemize.

Q — I got a short form in the mail but I might have to file the regular Form 1040 this year. Where can I get a copy of it and the instructions?

A — Tax forms are available at many banks and post ofices as well as at local offices of the IRS.

Q — My wife is visiting her family for a few weeks. If we file a joint return do I really need her signature? Our return is all set to go and I want to get the refund as soon as possible.

A — On joint returns, the signatures of both husband and wife are required. If signatures are missing any refund due you may be delayed.

Q — Our daughter started work last fall but my wife and I still support her. Can we claim her as a dependent?

A — It depends on several factors. To be eligible to claim her as a dependent you must have provided more than half her support for the year. However, if she earned $600 or more during the year then she must either beu nder 19 at the end of the year or a full-time student during five months of the year for her to still cualify as a dependent.

Q — Under what conditions can a person 65 or over sell a house and not have to pay any tax on the profits?

A — There will be no tax to pay if:

1. You were 65 or older before the date of the sale.
2. The adjusted sales price was $20,000 or less.
3. You owned and occupied the house as your principal residence for at least five of the eight years preceding the sale.

If the adjusted sales price was over $20,000 and the other conditions are met, then only a portion of the profit will be taxable. Details on this and other benefits are contained in the booklet, "Tax Benefits for Older Americans," Document No. 5569. For a free copy, drop a post card to your IRS district director.

DIPLOMATIC POUCH

WASHINGTON, D.C.-The following letters were recently answered by the Department of State.

VIETNAM

I am writing you after much thought and study, of the information available to me, concerning our involvement in the war in Vietnam. Beisdes having had considerable study of international relations and law in college, I have worked in your department in the past and have tried to keep current through the study of books, newspapers and other sources of information including servicemen who have served in Vietnam.

My conclusions, at this point, are that I can no longer support our involvement in this conflict. It is my considered opinion that we are making nothing more than murderers out of our men whom we demand fight in this situation, and that we are uselessly murdering our own young men. I do not intend to participate in or organize demonstrations. None of these things are helpful either to us or to the cause of peace.

If you can conclusively prove to me the rightness of what we are doing, I am willing to be so persuaded. However, as of now, I am convinced that we are both legally and morally wrong to be involved in the support of a government that the people do not want and in the daily murder of women and children in a country where our presence is neither wanted nor needed.

Clermont, Fla.

Dear Mr. R.:

We regret that you disagree so strongly with our policies in Vietnam, however we welcome your comments about the conduct of the war there.

We are involved in Vietnam because we know from experience that the minimum condition for order is that aggression must not be permitted to succeed. For when it does succeed, the consequence is not peace, it is the further expansion of aggression.

In a guerrilla war where the enemy mixes with civilians and hides among them, civilians inevitably are exposed. Everything possible is being done to keep down civilian casualties resulting from our military operations in the South.

With regard to civilian casualties in the North, it is our policy to strike targets of a military nature, especially those closely related to North Vietnam's eforts to conquer the South. We have never deliberately attacked any target that could legitimately be called civilian. We have not bombed cities or directed our efforts against the population of North Vietnam.

We recognize that there has been loss of life in the North. We recognize that people living or working in close proximity to military targets may have suffered. We recognize, too, that men and machines are not infallible and that some mistakes have occurred.

But, there is a vast diference between such unintentional events and a deliberate policy of attacking civilian centers. Tens of thousands of civilians have been killed, wounded, or kidnapped in South Vietnam, not by accident but as the result of a deliberate policy of terrorism and intimidation conducted by the Viet Cong.

We regret all the loss of life and property that this conflict entails. We regret that a single person, North or South, civilian or soldier, American or Vietnamese, must die, and the sooner this conflict can be settled, the happier we and the Vietnamese people will be.

Easter Seals Aid Crippled Children

Easter Seal Appeal letters are being delivered this week in Milam County according to Richard Williams, Easter Seal Appeal Chairman for the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Milam County.

"This year's appeal, which continues through Easter Sunday, April 14, is one of the most important in the history of the Easter Seal Society," Williams said today.

"The reason is simple: the number of crippled children and adults increases every year and in direct ratio so does the need for more money to give them care and treatment. It is unthinkable that in this enlightened day and age that any crippled person should be deprived of the chance for rehabilitation."

"Medical science is saving countless babies with congenital defects who once would have died at birth. At the same time an ever increasing number of our senior citizens are surviving strokes and other afflictions and living longer," he explained.

"We wouldn't have it any other way of course, but the inescapable fact remains that many of those whom medicine has saved must still live their lives as cripples, and they must be cared for and rehabilitated to the best of our ability.

Local Society provides rehabilitation treatment for children and adults at the Temple center.

"This year we hope to increase the number of handicapped individuals served by the Easter Seal Society, Williams said. "Even to maintain the same services to the same number of crippled children and adults will require a budget increase in view of the rising cost of care and treatment and we cannot in good conscience remain static in our work on behalf of the handicapped.

Williams said Easter Seals are not returnable sales items with price tags. "They are, he said, "symbols of hope for the handicapped.

Rain Slows Drilling Activity In County; Wildcats Scheduled

Rains and wet grounds continue to prevent any drilling activity in Milam County, although three new wildcats have been staked in the Milbur Field area and at least two more in other parts of the county have been scheduled.

Newest wildcat scheduled for the Milbur Field area is the Houston Petroleum Company No. 1 John V. Kohut located about three miles south of Milano. Drillsite is on an 118 acre lease in James Shields Survey. Permit depth is 4,000 feet with the Basal Wilcox as its objective.

Another Wilcox test, the Frio Petroleum Company No. 1 W. H. Haley, Jr., has been staked on a 100 acre lease in John Dunlop Survey, but is waiting on improved weather conditions to start.

And several miles east of the Haley the Dick Schwab No. 1 Bonerden in M. Moro Survey was still unable to drill at last report, although a B & B Contractor rig was moved in to the location almost a month ago.

Two other scheduled wildcats, the R. L. Hill No. 1 Walter Scarborough in north Milam and the No. 1 J. L. Lampkin several miles southeast of Cameron, to be drilled by C. T. Grubbs and McAlpin, also were waiting on weather conditions at last report.

Local board quotas for March, already mailed by state Selective Service headquarters, are designed to provide 1,948 men.

This is the largest monthly quota for the state since November, 1966, when the call was for 2,012 men. During the period of 17 months between these quotas, the low point was a call for 674 in February, 1967.

Legal Notice

CAMERON INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT NOTICE OF SCHOOL DESEGREGATION PLAN UNDER TITLE VI OF THE CIVIL RIGHTS ACT OF 1964.

This Notice is made Available to Inform You About The Desegregation of our Schools. Keep a Copy of this Notice. It will answer many questions about School Desegregation.

1. Desegregation Plan in Effect.

The Cameron I. S. D. public school system is being desegregated under a plan adopted in accordance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. The purpose of the Desegregation plan is to eliminate from our school system the racial segregation of students and all other forms of discrimination based on race, color, or national origin.

2. Thirty-Day Spring Choice Period.

Each student or his parent, or other adult person acting as parent, is required to choose the school the student will attend next school year. The choice period will begin on March 1, 1968 and close March 31, 1968.

3. Explanatory Letters and School Choice Forms.

On the first day of the choice period an explanatory letter and this notice will be sent by first-class mail to the parents, or other adult person acting as parent, of each student then in the schools who is expected to attend school the following school year. A school choice form will be sent with each letter, together with a return envelope addressed to the Superintendent. Additional copies of the letter, this notice and the choice form are freely available to the public at any school and at the Superintendent's Office.

4. Returning the Choice Forms.

Parents and students, at their option, may return the completed choice forms by hand to any school or by mail to the Superintendent's office at any time during the 30-day choice period. No preference will be given for choosing early during the choice period. A choice is required for each student. No assignment to a school can be made unless a choice is made first.

5. Choice Form Information.

The school choice form lists the names, location and grades offered for each school. The reasons for any choice made are not to be stated. The forms asks for the name, address and age of the student the school and grade currently or last attended, the school chosen for the following year, the appropriate signature, and whether the form has been signed by the student or his parent.

(If choice form asks for the student's race, color, or national origin, insert the following sentences: "The race, color, or national origin of the student is requested for purposes of record keeping required by the U. S. Office of Education. The information will not be used in any way to discriminate against the student.") Any letter or other written communication which identifies the student and the school he wishes to attend will be deemed just as valid as if submitted on the choice form supplied by the school system. The names of students and the schools they choose or are assigned to under the plan will not be made public by school officials.

6. Course and Program Information.

To guide students and parents in making a choice of school, listed below, by schools, are the courses and programs which are not given at every school in this school system.

Yoe High School - Latin I and II, Spanish I and II, and Industrial Arts.

7. Signing the Choice Form.

A choice form may be signed by a parent or other adult person acting as parent. A student who has reached the age of 18 at the time of choice, or will next enter the ninth or any higher grade, may sign his own choice form. The student's choice shall be controlling unless a different choice is exercised by his parent before the end of the period during which the student exercises his choice.

8. Processing of Choices.

No choice will be denied for any reason other than overcrowding. In cases where granting all choices for any school would cause overcrowding, the students choosing the school who live closest to it will be assigned to that school. Whenever a choice is to be denied, overcrowding will be determined by a uniform standard applicable to all schools in the system.

9. Notice of Assignment, Second Choice.

All students and their parents will be promptly notified in writing of their school assignments. Should any student be denied his choice because of overcrowding he will be promptly notified and given a choice among all other schools in the system where space is available.

10. Students Moving Into the Community.

A choice of school for any student who will be new to the school system may be made during the spring 30-day choice period or at any other time before he enrolls in school. An explanatory letter, this notice and the school choice form will be given out for each new student as soon as the school system knows about the student. At least seven days will be allowed for the return of the choice form when a choice is made after the spring 30-day choice period. A choice must be made for each student. No assignment to any school can be made unless a choice is made first.

11. Students Entering First Grade.

The parent, or other adult person acting as parent, of every child entering the first grade, or kindergarten (delete "or kindergarten" if not offered), is required to choose the school his child will attend. Choices will be made under the same free choice process used for students new to the school system in other grades, as provided in paragraph 10.

12. Priority of Late Choices.

No choice made after the end of the spring 30-day choice period may be denied for any reason other than overcrowding. In the event of overcrowding, choices made during the 30-day choice period will have first priority. Overcrowding will be determined by the standard provided for in paragraph 8. Any parent or student whose first choice is denied because of overcrowding will be given a second choice in the manner provided for in paragraph 9.

13. Tests, Health Records and Other Entrance Requirements.

Any academic tests or other procedures used in assigning students to schools, grades, classrooms, selections, courses of study, or for any other purpose, will be applied uniformly to all students without regard to race, color, or national origin. No choice of school will be denied because of failure at the time of choice to provide any health record, birth certificate, or other document. The student will be tentatively assigned in accordance with the plan and the choice made and given ample time to obtain any required document. Curriculum, credit, and promotion procedures will not be applied in such a way as to hamper freedom of choice of any student.

14. Choices Once Made Cannot be Altered.

Once a choice has been submitted, it may not be changed, even though the choice period has not ended. The choice is binding for the entire school year to which it applies, except in the case of (1) compelling hardship, (2) change of residence to a place where another school is closer, (3) the availability of a school designed to fit the special needs of a physically handicapped student, (4) the availability at another school of a course of study required by the student, which is not available at the school chosen.

15. All Other Aspects of Schools Desegregated.

All school - connected services, facilities, athletics, activities and programs are open to all on a desegregated basis. A student attending school for the first time on a desegregated basis may not be subject to any disqualification or waiting period for participation in activities and programs, including athletics, which might otherwise apply because he is a transfer student. All transportation furnished by the school system will also operate on a desegregated basis. Faculties will be desegregated, and no staff member will lose his position because of race, color or national origin. This includes any case where less staff is needed because schools are closed or enrollment is reduced.

16. Attendance Across School System Lines.

No arrangement will be made or permission granted by this school system for any students living in the community it serves to attend school in another school system, where this would tend to limit desegregation, or where the opportunity is not available to all students without regard to race, color, or national origin. No arrangement will be made, or permission granted, by this school system for any students living in another school system to attend school in this system, where this would tend to limit desegregation, or where the opportunity is not available to all students without regard to race, color or national origin.

17. Violations to Be Reported.

It is a violation of our desegregation plan for any school official or teacher to influence or coerce any person in the making of a choice or to threaten any person with penalties or promise favors for any choice made. It is also a violation of Federal regulations for any person to intimidate, threaten, coerce, retaliate or discriminate against any individual for the purpose of interfering with the free making of a choice of school. Any person having any knowledge of any violation of these prohibitions should report the facts immediately by mail or phone to the Equal Educational Opportunities Program, U. S. Office of Education, Washington, D. C. 20202. (telephone 202-962-0333). The name of any person reporting any violation of the desegregation plan or other discrimination based on race, color, or national origin in the school system is also a violation of Federal requirements, and should likewise be reported. Anyone with a complaint to report should first bring it to the attention of local school officials, unless he feels it would not be helpful to do so. If local officials do not correct the violation promptly, any person familiar with the facts of violation should report them immediately to the U.S. Office of Education at the above address or phone number.

Entered as second-class matter at the Post Office in Cameron, Texas, under the Act of Congress of March 1, 1879. Published every Thursday.

About Those Houses . . .

Now that industry payroll is certainty, that downtown renewal planning has begun, now that numerous modernization programs are underway...

Would it not be timely for Cameron to inquire, as has Hillsboro, into a program of demolishing long-empty, delapidated frame houses?

The Hillsboro Daily Mirror of February 21 noted that Hillsboro city councilmen voiced support for a program to "rid the city of vacant delapidated houses which they termed 'fire hazards.'"

It was the second such effort arising in that Cen-Tex town to the north. The first had minimum effect, The Mirror says.

If officials will check the records, a number of fires each year takes local firemen to an empty house or shack in Cameron which burns by some inexplicable combustion, perhaps a tramp sleeping in overnight, perhaps the sun's rays, perhaps a dozen different causes.

Their unsightliness is only a first consideration. These shacks attract all types of interest, including infestation, which can be rats and other community dangers.

These empty houses serve no purpose. They are no longer of use. They are not worth the tearing down, except for health and aesthetic reasons, which now are more important to a progressing Cameron than in perhaps 50 years.

Can the City of Cameron follow the example of the City of Hillsboro? It would truly be a worthy service.

Curtains Down, Shades Next?

We note the American Bar Association's endorsement of the Reardon Report, a position that squeezes down on the press' traditional right to publish court news.

This segment of press limitation, requiring judges and other court officials to limit comment or release of information, is another step toward the press' condition in Great Britian.

There, the press may enter the picture only when the accused is tried, found guilty. There is little allowance even of court testimony.

We gather the ABA judges the whole press by the few. Coverage of several sensational cases in the past few years has brought down this curtain. It suggest the shades are next.

We would remind the American people that the first amendment, freedom of expression, written or spoken, resides in the public, independent press. Radio and television are specifically "permitted" to use the public air and can be, in the extreme, censored or probated by government regulation. And a few, with whom we do not necessarily agree, have been censored.

The printed media, despite cry of "monoply" press, and all the rest, is the only vehicle free to publish and comment, without license.

Without crying alarm, we urge ABA leadership, particularly those defense counsels whose concern is the accused, the underdog's rights, to consider the difficulties which the press now has in getting information, and more apropos, the enormous, incredible crime rate which prevails in and threatens this country.

Air Southwest Is Intrastate Ltne

By Vern Sanford
AUSTIN

A rather important corner may have been turned by the State of Texas in providing transportation facilities for its people. This by clarifying where the line between state and federal regulatory power should be drawn.

Texas Aeronautics Commission took the big step when its six members voted to certify Air Southwest Co., of San Antonio as an intrastate airline competing with the large, federally regulated interstate lines.

Air Southwest plans to offer commuter service among Dallas, San Antonio, and Houston using Lockheed Electra prop-jets. It says it can offer service comparable to the large airlines and at rates lower by more than 20 percent.

Federal - state rub is that the Civil Aeronautics Board licenses the interstate carriers and has its service and subsidy balances all worked out, without considering any state-licensed airlines.

So, Air Southwest is going to upset those balances somewhat, by taking from Braniff, Trans-Texas and Continental airlines some of the revenues now received under their charters from the CAB.

CAB did not make its wishes in the matter of Air Southwest's certification known to the Texas Aeronautics Commission. But Braniff, TTA and Continental did. Result was a seven-day hearing before TAC examiners, then another hearing for oral arguments before the commission itself.

Despite TAC's favorable ruling, the fight is far from over. Opponents to Air Southwest's plans have made it known that they plan to take their case into the courts as far as it will go.

In the state courts, they will maintain that the TAC's action was not based on "substantial evidence". If they fail there, one attorney said they might go into the federal courts, charging that the TAC certification placed an undue burden on interstate commerce in violation of the U.S. Constitution.

SPECIAL SESSION OUTLOOK

Gov. JohnCo nnally revealed a "new unofficial estimate" by State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert on available revenue for operating state government may be some $50 million higher than the comptroller's October, 1967, estimate of $297,600,000.

Governor Connally says the import of that is "the increase in available revenues will relieve the pressures for as large a tax bill as was originally anticipated" for the special legislative fiscal session. Connally has denied rumors that he will call a special session of the Legislature in March.

"I am hopeful that if the special legislative session this year can be postponed until June," Speaker Ben Barnes said, "the figure will be even less" than the previous estimate of $115 million in new tax resources necessary to support the state government in the fiscal year which begins Sept. 1.

Barnes said recent revisions in revenue estimates mean that if the Legislature had passed a two-year tax bill in 1967, instead of waiting for a special session, Texas taxpayers would have been taxed about $60 million more than necessary.

LBJ CONTRACT AWARDED

A contract for construction of 16,673 feet of high gameproof fencing at Lyndon B. Johnson State Park in Gillespie County has been awarded to Jasper Moore of Ingram. Moore was lowest among five bidders with a project price of $19,717.

Parks and Wildlife Department said the fencing project was designed more to keep exhibition animals in LBJ State Park than to keep visitors out. But it will enclose a large portion of the park and separate it from Ranch Road 1 and the LBJ Ranch, known as "The Texas White House".

PEOPLE POLLUTION!

"With overpopulation a world problem, Planned Parenthood is becoming increasingly important as a governmental project" says Alan Bloebaum, regional director of the Southwest Region of Planned Parenthood.

A five-state district meeting on the subject is set for March 4 and 5 in Austin. This conference will be followed by a series of state sessions on family planning. Among them will be a special family planning conference by OE O. the American Association of Planned Parenthood Physicians and the State Nursing Association.

Cost of planned parenthood for one family per year is about $15, whereas the cost of welfare support - federal, state and county - for a dependent child is about $1,200 a year.

COURTS SPEAK

Supreme Court will hear arguments on March 27 in a Fort Worth case involving whether the city has provided required services to keep 6.3 square miles of annexed land or whether it must relinquish the property taken February 18, 1963, near Everman.

High court agreed a South Houston Gardens man is entitled to $14,000 damages for harm to his house and peace of mind caused by low-flying planes after William P. Hobby runways were extended to near edge of his property.

Transfer of four square miles from Rosenthal to Lorena school district is invalid without Falls County school board approval. Supreme Court concluded, upholding Court of Civil Appeals.

State Banking Board's award of a charter to American Bank of Commerce in Grapevine now has Supreme Court approval.

Third Court of Civil Appeals backed up a district court order that a charter should have been granted to Mission Savings and Loan Association in northeast Bexar County.

Court of Criminal Appeals affirmed death penalty assessed Kenneth Allen McDuff who was accused of killing three teenagers.

Residency requirement in state aid to families of dependent needy children act is under attack in a new federal court suit.

POVERTY PROGRAM SHIFTING

Texas War on Poverty program seems to be heading for a shift in control to the cities and counties under new federal legislation. New law will give local governments the option of taking over programs, effective Feb. 1, 1969.

Cities and counties would have three alternatives: designate an existing community action agency; or designate themselves or some other public or private agency to operate the poverty program; or leave the decision of who is to run the program up to State poverty officials.

Change in control may also mean a change in the funding formula for the poverty program. Regional OEO Administrator Fred D. Baldwin said there is a "strong possibility" that next year's federal appropriations will come to the states without federal strings on how the money should be used.

OLD PHILOSOPHER

Dear editar:

According to an article I read in a newspaper some do-it-yourself garbage disposal worker dropped in the ditch along the road near my house out here on this Johnson grass farm yesterday, a lot of people are concerned about what's going to happen in this country next summer when the weather is warm and the rioting is easy.

I guess it's all right to have somebody worrying six months ahead although I don't see how he does it. I'm not through worrying yet about what heppened yesterday and is bound to happen tomorrow to worry about spring, not to mention summer. I thought of offering the suggestion to these planners that the place to hold riots is in Saigon or Hue. From the looks of those wrecked places you could stage one without being noticed, the before and after pictures would be the same, but that's out of my department.

What interested me in that article was the report that the way to prevent riots is to remove the causes. That's true, the same as it is with wars and divorces and school trustee fights and economic depressions, if anybody wants the job, but what really got my attention was a statement one of the rioters of last summer made. He said, as he walked off with a color T.V. set, "All I'm doing is collecting what's owed my great-great grandfather."

However, I like the idea. For example, I have been told that one of my ancestors was thrown in jail in England for life for a bad debt he didn't owe, he wasn't the type of man who was given grocery creidt in the first place, and I hope the bank recognizes this if I skip the next payment on my note. And if it doesn't, I'd ask it to remember what Julius Caesar did. What this country needs is more banks and television stores familiar with the history of the human race.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

LETTERS—

Rockdale, Tex.

Dear Editor:

Here is more about Yarrellton 68 years ago. I am sure there are a few living at Yarrellton that remember the John Howard family that moved from Belmena to two miles south of Yarrellton in 1900. I went to school there, it was my third school year. Mr. Watts was principal then and some of the children were Mable Henderson (late Mrs. Jim Mann), the Jerry Perkins children and the John Barrett children.

The Gandys were our neighbors and the Houstons, Kemps, Mrs. Thweatt, Dobbs, Oatts.

I was Bea Howard. Later in 1906 I married Bob Moorman and lived at Yarrellton two years then moved to North Elm where we raised our three children. In 1932 we bought a 200 acre farm in Burleson Co ..... now I live in Rockdale where my son is Supt. of Schools.

Mrs. Bob Moorman

PAPER HOUSE

An enterprising designer has built a paper house that can be used as a beach house in the summer, ski chalet in winter and can be collapsed for storage. It weighs 120 pounds, is fireproof and will last at least five years, notes the American Paper Institute. Cost? About $600.

The Texas trend is toward urbanization. Rural population has dropped 30 percent in two decades.

Release Of FHA Funds Asked For Cotton Farmers

The House Committee on Agriculture called on President Johnson today to order the release of impounded Farmers Home Administration funds so that more loans can be made to cotton farmers who suffered a disastrous crop year in 1967.

A resolution adopted by the committee pointed out that some $36 million which Congress authorized for disaster loans through the FHA has been withheld by the Budget Bureau, which is responsible to the Chief Executive. It requested the President to cause the Bureau to release the funds at once, and asked the Secretary of Agriculture, the FHA and the Small Business Administration through their representatives, to counsel immediately with distressed farmers and then to expand and liberalize the disaster loans program.

The SBA has authority to make loans to cotton ginners whose operations have been curtailed because of small cotton yields, and many are unable to meet their financial obligations.

Two-Step Program To Aid Blackland Cotton, Grain Farmer

A two-step program to improve the economic position of the Blackland cotton and grain farmer has been taken by the Blackland Cotton and Grain Producers Association, Dan Pustejovsky, BCGPA president, Hillsboro, reports.

They are:

1. Extension of the present government farm program signup to April 15;

2. Reconsideration of feed grain base acres on Blackland farms.

Pustejovsky said weather conditions since last fall are making it impossible for farmers to comply with the March 15 deadline sign-up now in force for the government farm program.

"It appears we will be late in all farming operations this spring, so we need extra time to consider our year's plans," he said.

Concerning feed grain base areas Pustejovsky said Blackland farmers for years have been losing "hundreds of thousands of dollars in every county" because of the feed grain bases.

This came about through the old A and B cotton program around 1959-60. Then, many Blackland farmers planted additional cotton under plan B as provided in the government program. But they were penalized in future years by not getting credit for those extra acres in either cotton or grain.

"Correction of this will mean hundreds of thousands of dollars in additional income for counties in the Blacklands," Pustejovsky said.

County Agent's Notes . . .

Save Early Blooms Expert Says

By Ronald L. Bailey

"Save those early blooms on cotton, because they are the most important," reported John Thomas, entomologist from Texas A&M University, at the cotton production meeting held in Thorndale, February 22.

Thomas pointed out that 90 percent of those blooms that emerge the first 7 days of blooming will make bolls. Only 50 percent will make bolls from the second 7 days of blooming and only 25 percent of the blooms from the third 7 days will make bolls. This means that early season insect control is important.

The two most important insects to control early are thrips and fleahoppers. The thrip attacks cotton as soon as it comes up. Thrip damage causes stunting of the plant and delayed fruiting; thus the losses of those early squares. The fleahopper feeds on the tender small squares; thus it also causes a reduction of your early squares.

If you make it through the early season there are two more insects that will destroy the crop in the late season. These are boll weevils and boll worms. For more information on controlling and identifying these four insects consult your county agent.

The cotton production meeting also included information on cotton varieties, weed control, planting and harvesting and equipment. B. G. Reeves, cotton ginning and mechanization specialist, pointed out the importance of precision planting and harvest equipment. Fred Elliott, cotton specialist, discussed results of cotton variety tests and weed control. For information on these subjects come by the county agent's ofice.

ASCS

By Alva E. Sanders

Beginning April 1, the county office will be open all day from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. In the past, the office has been closed during the noon hour. Preparing for the change in office hours, the office has already begun remaining open during the noon hour, however, the closing at 4:30 p.m. will not begin until April 1.

Remaining open during the noon hour appears to be beneficial to farmers for several reasons. Many times a farmer came to the office immediately after 12 p.m. only to find the office closed and thus he had to wait until 1. This caused an inconvenience as well as delay to the farmer.

Also the man working on a job will have an opportunity to come to the office during the noon hour to tend to ASCS afairs without being absent from his employment during regular working hours.

Past experience tends to reflect that more farmers are in town during midday than late in the afternoon.

We hope this change will permit the ASCS Office to be of an even greater service to the farmers of Milam County.

There are several dates of importance soon approaching for farmers in the county, including:

March 8 - Final date to request more cotton acreage or release cotton acreage.

March 15 - Final date for sign-up for cotton, feed grain and wheat programs.

April 1 Final date for transfer of peanut allotment acreage.

April 4 - Final date to request additional peanut acreage or release peanut acreage.

School Menu–

Tuesday - Chicken pot pie, lettuce salad, jello with fruit, hot rolls, milk.

Rogers Schools Make Plans For Observing Public Schools Week

ROGERS

Plans are under way for one of the best observances of Public Schools Week in the Rogers school system ever. The Board of Trustees, the faculty, and the Rogers Parent Teacher Association all heartily endorse the special week, which will be March 4 through 8.

The Rogers High School Student Council has designated that week as "Teacher Appreciation Week" in the Rogers schools.

The PTA is planning something special for teachers and a big Open House on Thursday night of that week. There will be exhibits of pupils' work at all levels of school and parents will have a good opportunity to visit with their children's teachers.

A special feature in the Rogers school system not observed in other school districts is "Grandparents Day". Every year this day is observed here on Wednesday of Public Schools Week. Purpose of this special day, according to Supt. B. F. Harbour, is to encourage our older citizens to keep in touch with their schools and to encourage the young people of this generation.

The PTA will make awards in four divisions or levels of the school system, for the most parents of school children to register during the week. There will be registration desks in each elementary room; the high school and junior high school Student Councils will provide registration at those levels.

At Open House Thursday night, the PTA will serve refreshments in the gym. There will also be registration there. A booth of PTA projects will be on display in the gym Thursday night, according to Mrs. Darrell Henson, PTA President. Mrs. Henson says a record crowd is expected for the Open House.

PROCLAMATION

Annually the Governor and the State Board of Education of Texas issue separate proclamations for the observance of Public Schools Week in Texas. This year the observance will be March 4-8, 1968, inclusive.

Public Schools Week originated in 1950 as a public service project. It was launched for the sole purpose of stimulating and advancing the general interest in public education in Texas.

As your Mayor, I call upon the people of Rogers to visit your school system during this special week. The schools belong to the people, and all of us, young and old alike, should keep up our interest in them, by visiting the school system and by doing all we can to help promote public education for our children and for our country.

s: Bob Persky, Mayor

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wise visited Mrs. Noel Yardley and mother, Mrs. J. H. Thompson in Bryan Friday afternoon.

Refreshing Outlook

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

What an exciting, stimulating century we live in! There's so much to see and to do. From morning until night we're on the go, and sometimes we can't sleep because our minds are whirling with plans for a busy tomorrow.

It pays to take time to breathe . . . time to unwind. We need a way to restore our souls and bodies so that the demands of modern life will not be overwhelming.

The Christian faith offers in full measure that healing peace within us that the psalmist describes. The Christian outlook is refreshing in its sincere approach to the problems of our complex society.

Why not join your neighbors, and attend church this Sunday? Here is a way to find "that peace which the world cannot give."

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS

By Vern Sanford

A topflight fisherman, through experience gained by trial and error, can look at a stretch of water and be able to tell fairly accurately whether or not it will hold fish.

This is one reason why just a few fishermen catch most of the fish. They devote their time to working water where fish are likely to be.

Many casual fishermen spend much of their time fishing "dead" water where they stand no chance whatsoever of catching anything.

One of the best bass fishermen we know finds a likely stretch of shoreline and prospects along it for a few minutes, and if he hasn't had any action in that time, he hauls off to another spot. He keeps on continually and systematically trying diferent places until he pinpoints a concentration of fish.

A spot he tries in the morning for instance, might be visited again in the afternoon. In bass fishing, things have a way of changing in a hurry.

Far too many fishermen, be they using artificial or natural baits, will stop at a certain spot and camp there for hours. This, whether they are catching anything or not. Any fisherman should be able to tell within a reasonable length of time, no more than 30 minutes, whether a certain locale holds cooperative fish. If after this time he's had no action, he should move.

The typical fisherman stresses the mechanics of the sport. He reads everything he can get on the right tackles to use, the correct baits and how to manipulate them.

Even with this knowledge he'll catch nothing in dead water. On the other hand, just an average fisherman can take fish if he's a a spot where the fish are concentrated.

A skilled white bass fisherman of our acquaintance stresses the importance of first finding the fish. Everyone thinks he has some magic, some secret strategy. Yet he does nothing that many other fishermen do except catch fish consistently.

One of his favorite lakes is Lake Buchanan in Central Texas. When he gets on Buchanan, he immediately devotes his time to locating the fish, realizing that they can move from day to day.

If gulls are working, he'll fish below them, reasoning that they are feeding on shad that white bass have pushed to the surface.

Should there be no bird activity, he'll try different spots where he's taken whites in the past. It is a simple strategy that will work on any lake.

He'll spend only about 15 minutes or so at one spot. After taking maybe 15 to 20 casts without action, he'll pull the anchor and try another spot. He firmly believes in the simple fact that in white bass fishing, like any kind of fishing, a person must first find the fish before he can catch them.

Fish are not distributed evenly throughout any impoundment. They are isolated in scattered pockets. So, the angler must first find a concentration before he can catch anything. It is as simple as that!

Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the DPS, said today that an estimated 332,986 major crimes were committed during 1967, compared to the 297,810 offenses estimated in 1966.

All major categories of crime showed increases of over 10 per cent during 1967. Murder and homicide rose 12.4 percent, rape was up 12.8 percent, robbery climbed 19.0 percent, burglary was up 11.4 percent, aggravated assault rose 12.8 percent, theft increased 11.4 percent and auto theft was up 14.1 percent.

Garrison said that only 27 percent of known offenses were cleared by arrests during the year, compared to a 29 percent clearance rate during 1966. The national figure for crimes cleared by arrest during 1966 was 24.3 percent.
